

An Invitation from the Grove Community School

Please join us for a free parent workshop we're hosting at the Grove Community School!

Free Parent Workshop: Engaging in Acts of Allyship

Date: May 18th 6:30-8:30,

Location: Senior Lunch Room in Alexander Muir Gladstone PS 108 Gladstone Ave.

This workshop, facilitated by the wonderful Jill Andrew, will explore how those with privilege can act as an effective ally to disadvantaged groups, including how to advocate, listen and check in and the basics of intersectionality. There will be activities and discussion.

Jill Andrew is an award-winning national columnist with Metro Toronto Daily Newspaper, as well as a teacher, women & youth advocate, performer, entrepreneur, events host and public speaker. She is the founder and producer of Curvy Catwalk. We are lucky to have her!

Please forward to your networks and feel free to bring friends and family and anyone interested!

Childcare will be provided. Email jemma76@gmail.com if you require it, or also just if you plan on attending so we have a rough idea of numbers. TIA.
